

From: Isburgh, Peter
To: 'Microsoft.atr(a)usdoj.gov'
Date: 1/18/02 8:18pm
Subject: comments

Dear Sirs,

Given the preponderance of monopoly abuse evidence against the defendant (as documented in the Findings of Fact), how does the proposed settlement send a message that this behavior will not be tolerated by the United States? In fact, it rewards it! Please make the punishment fit the crime, which should be measured in the billions of dollars for punitive damages.

How about using the award to fund a software technology incubator to rebuild the competition that Microsoft has so effectively repressed?